The most unusual day of my summer holidays this year was the 22th of July.

In July I was in Sochi with my parents. Every day we went sunbathing and swimming. We arrive to the beach in about 11 a.m and leave the beach at 6 o'clock.

In this day we left the beach at 6 o'clock, and then, we went to the cafe. I think, it was one of the most delicious dinners in my life. Then we went to our home. It was the room in the hostel.

At 10 o'clock I was in the bed.

¹⁰⁰ It was the good night, but in about 3 a.m. something woke me up. It was the PVO. When the PVO was shooting, I felt myself a little bit scary. But all came in normally after 15 minutes.

It was the most unusual day of my summer holidays this year

My summer holidays were really fun. In June my mother told me that I'm going to fly to my grandparent's city. I didn't really like this idea, but still go there. First week I haven't friends, so I was bored, sitting at home while my friends from my city were ⁵⁰ walking ^{ing} and having fun. But on the next week my two-step sister invited me to the her company of friends. Despite the worries, I agreed.

We were walked, made the parties and sleepovers. I'd get a lot of new cool friends, and next month I wasn't bored even a day. And now I think I really miss them. I understood that if you will be fun and interesting person, you will find friends everywhere. ²⁵

~~In~~ last summer, I did a lot of things. The main one was in June. I went to a camp with a lot of interesting activities. There was sculpting, art, English and much more. I also met a lot of nice people in there, and I even became friends with some of them. ⁵³

One time there was a water fighting. I took my water gun to there, and others took either water balloons or bottles. I was running around and shooting everyone. But then our main teacher announced that I was wet the least, and after that everyone went after me. From that experience I was really exhausted.

I really liked spending my time in ~~that~~ camp. I hope I'll come there again. ⁷⁰

The phrase "A bird may be known by its song" can be understood by the fact that specific birds sing specific songs. Birds ~~like~~ their singing can be specified as for calling out for others of its kind. There are lots of kinds of birds that have different sound of their singing and studying kinds of birds can help you specify what kind of bird that is by their singing if you encounter them. You may encounter aggressive birds in the woods that sing often so you can be cautious. There are birds whose singing is known to a lot of people for how beautiful it is or how often they hear it. As for my background knowledge and personal experience, a bird's song can have multiple purposes such as hunting, calling out for others of its kind and. In conclusion, a specific bird can be known by their singing and its purpose, some birds sing when hunting or when calling out for others.

In everyday life, we can observe numerous examples that support this idea. Consider a person who frequently speaks about honesty and integrity but consistently engages in deceitful behavior. Their actions contradict their words, revealing their true character.

Similarly, a colleague who consistently offers help and follow through on their promises demonstrates genuine kindness and reliability. Their deeds speak louder than any words they might utter.

A Bird may be known by its song
The proverb "A bird may be known by its song" carries a profound meaning about how one's character and nature can be ~~discerned~~ discerned through their actions and behavior. Just as different bird species have unique songs that identify them, people reveal their true selves through what they say and do. This ancient wisdom emphasizes that our deeds and words serve as the most accurate indicators of who we truly are.
